ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to acknowledge the help given me by different people in the preparation of this thesis.

The research was carried out under the auspices of the Department of Sociology, the University of New England, and supervised by Associate Professor J.H. Bell. I am grateful to members of the Post-Graduate Seminar of the Department of Sociology in the University of New England for their comments and suggestions when parts of the thesis were read before them. The help given by Mr. D.G. Yates, formerly the Aborigines' Welfare Officer in Armidale, is acknowledged. My husband, Mr. R. Teasdale, whose own research among part-Aborigines was in progress during the course of my fieldwork, gave me advice and encouragement.

Finally, I must thank the informants who gave willingly of their time. Without their help the study could not have been made.

Jennifer I. Teasdale.
